

University of the Pacific
Scholarly Commons

---

John Muir Correspondence (PDFs)

---

1893-04-30

Letter from Mary [Muir Hand] to John Muir & Louie [Strentzel Muir], 1893 Apr 30.

Mary Muir Hand

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence>

---

Recommended Citation

Hand, Mary Muir, "Letter from Mary [Muir Hand] to John Muir & Louie [Strentzel Muir], 1893 Apr 30." (1893). John Muir Correspondence (PDFs). 901.
<https://scholarlycommons.pacific.edu/muir-correspondence/901>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by Scholarly Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Muir Correspondence (PDFs) by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons. For more information, please contact mgibney@pacific.edu.

Kearney, Neb.
April 30. /93.

John and Lonie:

Dear Brother and Sister,

It is long since

I wrote to you and I am ashamed of it.
When I last wrote to sister Maggie, I thought to write to you before laying my pen and paper away, but weeks have fled since then. We should like much to see you, and were hoping that some or all of you would be in Chicago sometime during the spring or summer and that we might have the happiness of seeing you. I can hardly think of a greater pleasure than that of meeting you and your little daughters. Willis was in Lincoln last week and Dan tells him that John, accompanied by an artist will be with him soon, This makes me wonder if you John, are the only one of your family that we may hope to see, or will others come later? You ~~see~~ I look for you in Kearney too, if you come to Nebraska, yet- I hardly feel that- I deserve another visit-, I have been so naughty about- writing.

This morning when we looked out-, behold! every-thing was covered with ice and snow, but- it- soon disappeared, was all gone before noon. March was a pleasant- month with us, but- April has been cold and windy, making a backward spring.

We are all in usual health, and planning to be in Chicago and Portage in October.

I write thinking this may reach you before you leave your home.

Much love to you all. Affectionately Sister Mary